

We consumers need to be protected from telemarketers. They are dishonest and pushy. They will not take no for a answer. They will continue to call you if you say you don't need their product.

Please keep the do not call protection bill in place in New Jersey
We need it.